THE RESERVE OF THE PARTY OF THE

MEMPHIS APPEAL THURSDAY, : : MARCH 25, 1880. AN EXAMPLE POR TILDEN TO IM-

BYATE. Classical history has immortalized the Roman youth who sacrificed himself by plunging into the chasm for the public good. When a vast aperture of immense depth was | habitually-even the most ancient. The Hefound in the middle of the Roman forum it brew, for instance, with its vowel points, could not be filled up by all the earth that is a beautiful and very complete was thrown into it. There it remained, system of spelling according to the the city and the terrer-stricken population. Nor is it new in English, especially among ourselves in this country. The soothsayers decided that the Roman commonwealth would be made presparous and eternal and tint the chasm would immediately disappear if some young man representing the army, courage and strength of the republic would precipitate himself into the abyas. The Roman youth Curtius offered himself as searcifice. Arraying himself in full armor, he mounted his panting staed and plunged into the yawning chasm. The grateful people threw after him their offer-large quantities of the fruits of the earth, and the earth immediately classed over the heroic youth. Samuel J. Tilden should imitate this colle example. There is a wide, party, threatening its destruction. Tilden is should gradually but perseveringly go on. wide, deep, yawning, threatening to engulf pronunciation. Nor is it new in English, party, threatening its destruction. Tilden is should gradually but perseveringly go on. the only man who can bridge the gulf—fill Perhaps there may be a bold mind or two lost all semblance of human shape. A physical semblance of human shape. A physical semblance of human shape. up the chasm—by imitating the example of Cartins. Let him mount his charger. The country is not particular whether the animal be a donkey, a mule, or spavined, broken-winded dray-horse, so Tildon mounts the beast and makes the plunge, shouting as he goes: "Unity—harmony—everything for the goes: "Unity-harmony-everything for the for the benefit of such, adding by way of encause-nothing for men." As the notes of the couragement at the start that we see in the and were turned with pain until hardly anydying swan are sweetest, so would these last | Chicago Tribune such words as "filosofy" words be more melodious to Democratic ears and "alfabet," and the paper neither looks than any music ever made by the whispering | nor reads any worse on account of them. Instatesman of Gramercy park. Here is a deed the Appear always prints "fancy," chance for posthumous fame, but it is feared which used to be "phancy," but we must about the center of the nose almost to the Tilden will not be equal to his opportunities. acknowledge to sticking to the old "phan-If he has not patriotism enough to plunge tasmagria," which should be "fantasmagobreach, the Democratic party in the Cincin-became "fancy," "phantasm" should have terrible in its stench that the attendants, save nati convention must take him by the hair of the head and the seat of his breeches for a few simple changes for all friends of which the hair had been shaved, and and pitch him into the chasm of his reasonable spelling to begin with. 1. Leave from there this terribly offensive matter own creating. The APPEAL is making out a in ea when the vowel is pronounced occed constantly, until the swelling was no factious war upon Tilden, but it short, as helth, ded, insted. 2. Leave out nearly their nominal size. Attempts were has told and will continue to tell the Demosilent safter a short vowel, as hav, lov, inthen made to free the incisions of matter by centic party that Tilden's nomination, instead finit. 3. Use f for ph when ph is so pro- injecting water into them. It was noticed of closing the chasm, will make it so deep nounced; as telegraf, fraze, camfor. 4. When that when water was forced into the cut in party in a common rain. The journal which it so; as mixt, lasht, finisht. All proper party in a common rain. The journal which it so; as mixt, lasht, finisht. All proper seemed as if all the flesh between the skin fails to warn the party of impending dannames must be speit as usual. These changes and bone had turned to corruption and ran gers is as faithless as the sentinel who sees will be sufficient to start with, and great out. the approach of the enemy and fails to arouse good will be rendered the Eeglish language the sleeping army. But it is said the APPEAL even by these alterations alone. These censors seem to forget that all the strife, discord and bitterness in [the Demooriginate the bear of the stock the party is so monstrous in its stupidity that brokers of New York, at five and six cents on bone. He then placed one of his feet on the we cannot contemplate it with toleration.

Every Democrat from Maine to Texas, and from California to South Carolina, would hail with acclamations of joy the cigars and cigarettes were laid out in Charles-hotel, Chefmant, had been engaged in anticipation of the National convention in June next. Letters were result from members of the State committee, acting forth that the opposition to Tilden was increasing rather than diminishing, and that unsee no creamstances would be be supported if cominated. After the adjournment of the meeting Mr Kelly, in answer to questions said that the feeling against Tildeo in the interior of the State was growing more inter-daily. He added that there was no question that there would be two Democratic State was growing in the there would be two Democratic State was growing to the there would be two Democratic for the state of the st are told that the Democratic party owes Mr. droppers and overhearers he is basest who President once, but his cowardice and timid- tattlers should be whipped." ity, his want of courage and sagacity lest the Democratic party the fruits of the victory it | The noble charity of which Mr. Whitelaw had won. Tilden's presence at Washington, Reid, of the New York Tribune, is the agent demanding the position to which he had been and by which he is enabled at regular interelected, and repudiating the unconstitutional vals to send poor boys and girls from the mode improvised for cheating the people, slums of New York to cheerful, happy homes and appalled the tricksters who were common sense that might well be imitated mated loss is one hundred and fifty thousand publican party would now be ret- towns that have to support pourhouses. Mr. six acres, and as there was no insurance near-But after fairly winning the fight, Tilden the result is that out of the many hundreds not that the country around abounds in fruit, who have been the recipients of his bounty, upon which all are subsisting. The most dislacked the courage to gather the fruits of his | who have been the recipients of his bounty, victory, allowed himself to be frightened his advice and that care, not one has returned from the contest by the vague ambiguities of | and not one has made complaint. We do not | Grant and the rant of Chandler and Sher- know of money ever being employed to better man. A man's popularity in his own State purpose, and we congratulate our fellowis always made a test of his availability. journalist upon the good he has done and is Judged by this rule, Tilden will not be placed doing, and the noble example he has set to ing sleepy went to bed; a high wind scatter-Judged by this rule, Tilden will not be placed before the Cincinnati convention, for his neighbors who know him best are his worst enemies. The Democracy of the Empire State says to the Cincinnati convention, "You must either throw away Tilden or lose New York." And the National Democratic party would be supremely silly to devote the next canvass to the one task of vindicating and Washington and Indian Territories. Not one per cent. of this vast.

In galeepy went to bed; a high wind scattering the bas set to the charitable in all nations, and the noble example he has set to the charitable in all nations.

There are not less than nine hundred reality in a superior of time the building and those adjoining were in flames. The fire burned with great flames leaped across the street and swept everything away to the customhouse and ladian to the customhouse was allarge quantity of tobacco ready for shipment, but it was all destroyed. The customhouse stopped the further progress of the fire. Oaly the stores of Grullen & Fondam and G. Rivas are naturally most correct in their attire. Detailed the basic of vindicating in the air space of time the building and those adjoinant to be disable about the floor, and he charitable in all nations.

THERE are not less than nine hundred reality in a ship wind scattering the basic of the burning embers and in a short space of time the building and those adjoinant to be again the elegant Italian costume worn by his mother in Le Passant, while sheet of the ball-room. The basic of the burning embers and in a short space of time the building and those adjoinant to be again the elegant Italian costume worn has treated with a slight convulsion. A gurgling noise was heard in her throat, and the customhouse as a large quantity of tobacco ready for shipment, but it was all destroyed. The customhouse stopped the further progress of the fire of the burning embers and in a short with chest was also saw the white wings floating in the air was attacked with a slight convulsion. A gurgline as the Mr. Tilden from the opposition of Tammany. amount of land has been sold by the govern- left. It has more important work to do-that of ment, for the reason that in its present shape electing a man who, as President, will give it is absolutely worthless, and will so remain # cans may select.

COMMON-SENSE SPELLING.

know how to spell." This answer is just, and it is for this reason that persons who ere taking the course recommended, have formed themselves into an association, so as to secure a large number to begin the correct spelling together, and to agree what words or classes of words all shall take to spell aright, as a commencement. A large number of persons in the western States | Death so Dirty, Nasty and Horrifying and in the upper Mississippi valley are already taking a strong interest in the proposed change, perceiving the genuine, practical benefit that will flow from it. It may strike some readers of these lines that the proposition to spell words as we speak them is something new and unheard of; if so, they will draw a wrong conclusion. All phonographers who report trials, speeches, and so on, proceed strictly on the system of spelling every word as it is pronounced, and the name of their system means "writing by sound." Many languages do the same thing

UP TO FORTY!

Orly last fall the stock of the Memphis and from California to South Carolina, would hail with acclamations of joy the nomination of either Bayard, Segmour or Fields. In every section of the Democratic backerish a low-ground these mean. Democratic bacterish a low-ground these mean. Those five cent pieces of en-last three days of Tracedadie's existence was trailed to the popule should be found, under the state of the under the state of the constry flow in the arm and search the production of the country fliden has made as-tagen and where the ought to have more stream of finish that the law when the state of the country fliden has made as-tagen and where the ought to have more at the party and the work of the manufacture of the population of th Louis paper has the following:

A meeting of the State committee and other leaders of the wing of the State committee and other leaders of the wing of the State committee and other leaders of the state of the All grounds of the State committee and other leaders of the state of the All grounds of the State committee and other leaders of the Mahon estimate that there were between two hundred had and three hundred thousand members. A large maker leaders of the time had six inches from the days and three hundred thousand members. A large maker leaders of the time had general State of the cancer also that thousand members. A large maker leaders of the time had general Maker leaders of the time had general State of the cancer also that thousand members. A large maker leaders of the time had the two days live means of the state of the All was nor leaders of the state of the All was not leader a school of prophets—it will go up to fifty! And why not? We have seen it within this month or two sell at ten, at twenty, at thirty, now at forty, and, as we ask, why should it not reach fifty? It will in a few years he regularly quested with other stocks on days be regularly quoted with other stocks on the blackboards and in the publications of the Wall street New York stock exchance, stock that has flourished so speedily in obscurity will branch out into luxuriance.

Principles and Portraits, says: "Lave is waron could be procured the body swelled truth! It has no beentious secrets, but a and bursts it cli." It was then strapped lawful privacy, all intrusion on which is pro- on, but when the coffin was taken from fane. As the bird hides her nest among the true to her nature and her offspring, and fore the horrified attendants' eyes. The fetic would be false to herself and her author, if with foolish candor she exposed the delicate beauty of her eggs to every prowling eye or sight as hurriedly as possible. The day after Democratic party against the nomination of ness could impart to vulgar curiosity the a man so hated in his own State? But we truth of responsive breasts. Ot all eaves-Tilden the nemination because he was cheat- lurke, walks softly on tiploe, and puts his eye ed out of the office to which he was elected. and car to the keyhole to catch the gentle The Democratic party owes Mr. Tilden confession or surprise the ingenuous blush. nothing. It has given him more than it has There are scenes in which kith and kin have cut the air in that house with a kuife. ever received from him. It elected him no part to act, and from which churls and have inspired the Democracy at the west, is a practical exemplification of Domingo, on the ninth instant. to surrender, and the Re- by others, and especially by counties and dollars. The fire covered a space of about "the temb of besolete ideas." Rend gives this work his special care, and would be on the verge of starvation were peace to the county and restore constitutional government. If the Cincinnati convention will select a candidate who can not only poses the sinking of experimental artesian been spent on this assemblage of short stories and poems an amount of labor and pains which is as unusual to find in the work of so busy a man as Mr. Townsend, in his capacity unite the party in New York, but the entire | wells in the land for the purpose of irrigat- of Gath, as it is to find it spent to such exparty north, east, south and west, the Democ-racy can win against any man the Republi-ment will prove as remunerative as is claimed the region which all the stories and verse il-

A CONVENTION is called to meet in Phila- etical spirit of which Mr. Townsend has ad-An active association is in existence that is delphia on the twenty-third of June, and to any more to his advantage that his treatment earnestly striving, by the dissemination of in-formation and other ways, to make a begin continue in session until the third of July, for the purpose of arranging for a campaign simplicity. The latter excites wonder as to ning toward bringing about a rectification in for treeing Ireland. We hope the delegates, how many inglorious mutes-so far as litera the spelling of English words. They do not of whom there are to be a thousand or more, seek to accomplish the whole task at once; will resolve the convention into an emigration able, and doubtless otherwise attractive, to that is too vast a work to expect success in. | convention and arrange to free the poor of | be 'brilliant members,' contains."

They are trying to induce people to do away with some of the anomalies and so readure to reader the will that cannot be subdued all at once. No one can fail to see how ally it is to spell on the early interest, which is an interest, which is an interest, which is a spell and a spel a reader who can see the clear good sense of this proposition, "my correspondents would not know that I made the change on an intelligent system; they would think I did not a Rody-Snatcher. Who was Also an Body-Snatcher, Who was Also an Macready had made his entrance, amid the whirlwind of passion and indignation which seemed to shake the house, the actors were Amateur Phrenologist, Pays the Penalty of Devotion to Science in great terror, through the occasional fall-ing on the stage of some missile intended for Macready's head. Then the time came for with his Life-Particulars of a Mrs. Pope to make her entrance. It was with some hesitation that she appeared on the stage reading the letter from "Macbeth." the stage reading the letter from "Macbeth."

The disorder, however, suddenly stopped, and no longer frightened, Mrs. Pope went through her part without faltering to the end. She was in Chicago in 1852, and did not return to New York till January 16, 1857, when she appeared at the Academy of Music as "Romeo" to Mrs. MacMahon's "Juliet. She subsequently placed for several years in this as to Defy the Pen of a Reporter to Describe-The Body Could Only be Handled With Gloves.

South Bend, Indiana, special to the Cin cinnati Enquirer: Several months ago the corpse was missing. What led to the discovery was the finding of a human jaw-bone by he forehead it poured out of the notes in the scalp. As one of the attendants said, "it appeared to swell visibly was such that no one could attempt to replace he funeral-or burial, rather-the wife of Truesdale was confined at a neighbor's house

this fifth child also being a girl. The Trues

A WEST INDIAN FIRE.

Flames in Gutting the Town.

NEW YORK, March 24.-News was

Mute, Inglerious Journalists

ture is concerned, that is to say-the profession of journalism, of which it is so profitceived to-day of the destruction by fire some steech from the putrid mass within

When Truesdale was told that he Fred Auer, a farmer, who lived near subsequently played for several years in this city, and retired from the stage when her husband, who was insane, committed suicide.

ALMOST EQUAL TO RANDALL.

Talking Twenty-Six Hours-A Patriot ic and Terrible Speech Against Time to Kill an Unjust Bill.

of consumption, was found disturbed, and an examination showed that the head of the Peoria National Democrat: The longest county graveyard, some eight miles from the city, where the body was buried. The fact speech on record is believed to have been that only the head was taken threw suspicion on an amateur phrenologist named Gordon Truesdale. Truesdale occupied a small farm in the vicinity with his wife and a family of frauded out of their lands. DeCosmos was swollen almost to bursting from their sockets, from the subject; no sitting down. Twilight darkened, the gas was lit; members slipped out to supper in relays and returned to sleep in squads, but DeCosmos went on. The speaker to whom he was addressing thing but the whites could be seen. It was evident that a terrible poison was slowly, but surely, permeating the man's whole system. himself was alternately dozing, snoring, and trying to look awake. Day dawned and a The physician, after a careful examination of roots of the hair, and then made another cut across the forebead almost from temple to temple. From these incisions there oczed a settlers their lands.

1876.

Tilden and the Soldiers-A Scrap of History in Connection with the Fraudulent Inauguration.

could not possibly recover, he called his wife into the room and confessed to her that he NEW YORK, March 21 .- A reporter interroubed the Pintis gut's grave, and referred to a certain night when he left the house viewed some of the prominent gentlemen whose names have been published in connection with the so-called Union veteran reform and refused to tell her where he went as the time when he committed the crime. He said association, said to have been organized in 1876, and that Tilden was aware of its existence previous to the election. A convention of Union soldiers was held at Albany for the purpose of advancing the interests of Tilden for the Presidency. At that convention an executive committee was appointed, consisting of the most prominent Union army ofeyes actually decayed until they became sight-iess. For two days before his death a coffin had been in readiness, and the orders of the physician were to place him in it as soon as the breath left his body, and get him under ground immediately. After his death none of the attendants had the temerity to touch the corpus, for fear of being research as the eyes actually decayed until they became sightwas merely for the purpose of securing the inauguration of Tilden." Among the members of the organization were Peter Bowe, now sheriff of this county; General William the corpse, for fear of being poisoned, so they gathered the sheets on which the body lay at each end, and thus lifted it into the coffin. The hid was quickly screwed down, but before a F. Smith, police commissioner; General Wil-iam B. Franklin, General Couch, General M. T. Donobue, Colonel Michael C. Murphy General H. W. Slocum and General John B the wagon at the graveyard just at daylight, it again flew off, and the Woodward, late inspector-general of the le house will not be fit to occupy for sev ondon Telegraph. PARIS, March 5.—A ball was given last night, the like of which could certainly not be found in any other capital in the world but Paris. Some few days ago a very handal days, as all efforts to fumigate it thus fa have failed. The dcors and windows have been left open day and night, but the stencis still as bad as when he died. As one of the out Paris. Some few days ago a very handattendants said, "it still seems as if you could somely illustrated card—a work of art in itself, due to the pencil of Clairin—was received by the personal friends of Mile. Sara Bernhardt, reading thus: "Monsieur Mau-rice Bernhardt prie Monsieur X. de lui faire l'honneur de venir passer la soiree de la Mi-Careme chez sa mere." The enter-tainment was given in celebration of the young host having completed the fifteenth Pillagers Supplement the Work of the the bright and picturesque aspect of the famous atelier which has been described so often. A model of artistic splendor, it needed little to adapt it to the artistic splendor, it needed the entire business portion of Samana. San It displays the first shocked Mrs. Angus, a middle-aged, mild-looking lady.

"MON PETIT ACCIDENT." Sacah Bernhardt's Ball in Honor Her Boy's Birthday-The Scenes and Sights on the Occasion.

This remark shocked Mrs. Angus, a middle-aged, mild-looking lady.

"How can you talk so," she said reproving the fight when I heard the awful noise right at my teet."

"Yes," remarked Mr. Angus, cynically, mad I thought you'd choke me, you grasped me so tightly about the neck."

"Ob," said Mrs. DeBar, "I won't stay here graceful scenes of pillage followed the tire. somewhat severe aspect of the architecture murely lightened with additional tapestries another night; I can't stand it any longer. The custombouse was damaged by the conflagration. It is said that the pillagers of the and banners. The dining-room, the walls covered with frescoes on golden ground did naturally duty for the buffet, while an extra room, built out over the garden, and draped with gobelins, served as a cool retreat from the buffet, while an extra room, built out over the garden, and draped with gobelins, served as a cool retreat from the buffet was the bell dashed about the floor, and he ce quarrelled over the distribution of the booty and several of them were killed in the Sight that followed. A servant of Mr. J. G. Borch lighted a fire in the kitchen, and feeltien Lepage looking a Calabrian brigand to New York Nation: "There has evidently the life. But to enumerate the guests would be to give a list of all the nobilities in Paris. To show the eclectic nature of the gathering son fluid on the handkerchief. He said it I need only to mention that it included the came from the gums. With some experithe region which all the stories and verse il-lustrate (and which his ancestors explored in 1623, we note in his dedication), and the pojoyed it, will not easily be forgotten. Good Reason for Change. philosophy of the change is thus explained by the Plaindealer: "The rush of invention and improvement has for some years been making the afteraoon paper more and more antiquated, until it is now far from abreast is attached to St. Anthony's church, in Sulli-

OLD MOTHER SHIPTON'S

Prophecy that the World is to be Closed Out Under Contract in 1881 Receives Additional and Peculiar Force from the Conduct of Certain Spirits who Have Annoyed Several Persons in a Respectable House in Leroy Street, New York-A Marvelous Tale of Spirit Adventure.

New York Herald: Believers in the super-natural will rejoice in the mysterious maniions which for the past five days have caused the wildest excitement in an other-wise well conducted and orderly private dwellings in the ninth ward. The scene of dwellings in the ninth ward. The scene of the ghostly apparitions is a two-story brick building at No. 46 Leroy street. Mr. Michael Maher, the owner of the premises, occupies the tront parlor and uses the front part of the basement as a kitchen. A Mr. Angus and his wife reside on the second floor. Mrs. DeBar, a remarkably handsome and intelligent married woman, occupies the back parlor, which she rents as a furnished room. Her family consists of a baby ten weeks old. Her family consists of a baby ten weeks old, Alice, seven years of age, and a colored servant, Maggie Johnson, who is fifteen years old. Their apartment is small to accommodate so many people, and is comfortably furnished. Mrs. DeBar, since the birth of her baby, has not been in robust health. Mrs. DeBar is possessed of considerable literary attainments, and is a contributor to several periodicals. Her husband, J. H. Diss DeBar, is an ex-congressman from Virginia. At present Mr. DaBar is absent in Kansas, where he has charge of an emigration colony.

persons who have witnessed these mysteri ous manifestations, and who corroborat each others statements in a most remarkabl manner. These persons will be allowed to speak for themselves:
"I have occupied this room," said Mrs. De Bar, who was seated in bed, being an invalid "for a couple of months." Nothing unusua happened until last Sunday. The place had been up to that time remarkably quiet and orderly. Well, on the day in question, I was disturbed for the first time by strange sounds in the room. I paid little attention to them at first, but they became so frequent and loudthat my attention was attracted to them, and I became very much alarmed. I sent for Mrs. Angus and told her of my fears. While we were talking the rappings were repeated.
The knocks were loud and forcible. It appeared as if some person was beating the bedstead with a heavy stick. I was so fright-

PRANKS OF THE SPIRITS.

There are several reputable and intelligen

the gentleman.'
Maggie produced the cup from the cupboard and exhibited it. The vessel was of stone-chins, and was heavy and substantial. It was chipped at the side and cracked from the handle to the base.

theman what you saw. Oh, she's not afraid; are you, dear?"
"No, mamma," answered the child.
"Where is God, darling?" "Where is God, darling?"
"In the dark," was the childish reply.
"Well, go on now, dear, and tell the gen-tleman what happened to that picture."
Here Mrs. DeBar pointed to newayon sketch on the wall, midway between the head of the bed and the dcor.
"I saw a hand," said the child, "take hold of the picture and shake it."
"Where did the hand come from?"

"It came from the side of the table and was placed medicine bottles, stood beneath the drawing. "Tell the gentleman what you saw when the cup was thrown from the washatand yesterday morning." "I saw a hand and arm reach down for the cup and throw it across the rcom."
"Just a few minutes before you came in, said Mrs. DeBar, "the colored girl, while seated on the rocking-chair, with the baby in her arms-Maggie, please tell the gentleman what took place."
"I felt something press against my back, and I was thrown forward," said the colored Bar's ghostly allegations. CORROBORATIVE EVIDENCE.

"I didn't believe in it myself," said Mr. Angus, "and I don't still; but I can't deny that I saw the bell flying about, and was also present at the cup-tossing. I can bear witness also to the mysterious rappings which have been going on here. I haven't slept a wink in two nights. I wish I could catch the year of his age. Fancy dress was supposed to be de rigueur, and there were indeed so tew black coats that they in no way impaired easily about.

MESMERIZING THE COLORED GIRL.

A medical gentleman who was also an atteutive listener, critically examined the crimfamous Sergeant Hoff, whose bust, by Mile.

Bernhardt, is to be exhibited in the next salon. Dancing was carried on with a reckis the most conspicuous feature of the studio, leaves an impression which, by those who ena few minutes her gaze became fixed and she fell back on the sofs, breathing stertoriously. She was allowed to remain in the trance for a After an experience of thirty-eight years few minutes, when the doctor recalled her to consciousness by a wave of the hand, at the as an evening paper, the Cleveland Plain consciousness by a wave of the hand, at the dealer has become a morning paper. The same time bidding her awake. At the word have witnessed these things myself, with my own eyes. I know that a great many people will ridicule me for making such a statement, but I can't help that. I am simply telling truth-just what I saw with my own DOUBTING DOCTORS. Dr. D. M. Brosnan accompanied Father Cammellas to the sick chamber. Dr. Bros-nan testified that he heard the ringing of the bell; he did not remain long in the room and saw no wings. He denied the theory of the other doctor that the blood was exuded from the gums or from decayed teeth. "I thought so myself," said Dr. Brosnan, "until I ex-amined her mouth. Her gums and teeth are Coroner Knox is Mrs. DeBar's family physician. He says he has heard of, but has no seen the mysterious manifestations. He and Dr. Stephen J. Clarke concluded that Mrs DeBar was suffering from hysteria, but they were at a loss to account for the cause of th spasms and the bleeding at the mouth.

Michael Mallon is the proprietor of a liquor store at the corner of Carmine and Bedford streets. When questioned, he admitted that he, in the company of other friends, among whom were John Angus and a Mr. Rogers, while seated in the room, heard the raps. "The noise," said Mr. Mallon, "was like as brush which rested on the mantel has been dashed to the floor; that the picture of the M-donna was raised from its position and shifted to another place; that her tooth powder, combs, brushes, books and papers have been dashed about the flor by unseen bands; all that time, and I was fearful for my safety. I was only in Peru five or six months, and yet was inarked by continued brushes. colored servant furthermore alleged that when engaged sweeping the floor the dust and dirt she had sweet together would be again dashed back over the surface of the carpet she had a moment before swept.

AN ANONYMOUS SCRIBBLER, The Same who so Annoyed Dr Dix and

Others, of New York, Arrested in Baltimore.

His High-Sounding Name Not Likely to Avail Rim Much in His Pres-out Extremity.

barquet which the municipality tenders this evening to the general.

THE LEGEND OF ABOU BEN HILL. Abou Ben Hill -long may his tribe increase— Long may be tread the paths of virtue and of peace pproached by woman once of glowing charms. Holding a plump young man child in her arms-"What hast thou here, O peri, fair as noon! And whither comest, daughter of the moon?"

Abou Ben Hill was rich and grand and proud, The woman said, "He's truly thine, Indeed-

Abou Ban Hill, long may thy tribe increase In ways leg-timate, without surcease, CURIOSITIES OF CRIME. Reprieved. A SIX WEEKS LEASE OF LIFE.

BUFFALO, March 24 .- A reprieve of six weeks has been granted Carl Monks, sen-Capturing the Crooked. NINE DISTILLERIES AND SEVEN MEN NIPPED.

ATLANTA, GA., March 24 .- Nine allie stilleries and seven workmen were captured by a raiding force which has just returned. ROBBERY OF A BAND-WHEEL MAKER BRADFORD, PA., March 24 -Charles A. robbed last night, while asleep, of four thou-Appeal Denied. WILL HAVE TO EXPLATE HIS CRIME. MONTGOMERY, ALA., March 24.-The ourt denies the appeal of Gus Wynn, convicted of murder, and he was sentenced to e hanged April 30th.

A Double Crime. FRIGHTFUL MURDER AND SUICIDE. ELMIRA, N. Y., March 24.-At Lawren ELMIRA, N. Y., March 24.—At Lawrence-ville, Pennsylvania, Sidney Green killed his wife, and being pursued, shot himself dead. His wife had only recently returned from the west.

Would not like to go either to Japan, Catral America or Peru, I replied frankly that I would not like to go either to Japan, Catral Month and I replied frankly that I would not like to go either to Japan, Catral America or Peru, I replied frankly that I would not like to go either to Japan, Catral Month and I replied frankly that I would not like to go either to Japan, Catral Month and I replied frankly that I would not like to go either to Japan, Catral Month and I replied frankly that I would not like to go either to Japan, Catral Month and I replied frankly that I would not like to go either to Japan, Catral Month and I replied frankly that I would not leave the country with him, for I was afraid to. I asked him why he wanted a mission, and he said he wished to SUICIDE FROM FAMILY TROUBLES. PITTSBURG, March 24.—Mrs. Agnes could make up the difference by perqui-After lingering in a comatore state she died this evening at a quarter past seven | ination, I learned from the wife of a form o'clock. The cause of the rash act is sup-AN OHIO TEMPERANCE ARGUMENT.

Columbus, O., March 24.—A saloon in back that it had gone too far and he could bablin, this county, was blown up with pownot back out. I could tell you more of this der this morning by temperance people. Powder was used, and the wreck of the building was complete. Nobody was injured, and no arrests were made. The names of the parties could not be ascertained. His Bondsmen Liable. CHICAGO, March 24 .- In the case of the city of Chicago against D. A. Gage, ex-city of absence at the state department, and was urer, and his bondsmen, involving about advised that it would be granted as soon as five hundred and seven thousand dollars, the supreme court has reversed the decision of the appellate court, and decides that the

A WIFE'S TALE.

According to the Statements of Better-Half of Our Minister to Peru, that Venerable Personage is a Wife-Whipper of the Most Inveterate Stripe-A Story of Shocking Treatment, to Free Herself from Which the Poor Woman is About to Apply for a Divorce from Bread and Board-The End.

It has already been announced that Mrs. Christiancy, wife of Ex-Senator Christiancy, of Michigan, at present minister to Peru, has separated from her husband, and that both intend suing for divorce. Mrs. Christiancy, who was a clerk in the treasur department, and only twenty years of age when she married Mr. Christiancy, was a Miss Lubengeel, and now lives with her mother, who is a sister of Colonel Luben-geel, of the United States army. Her mother keeps a boardinghouse in Washington, and it is said Mrs. Christiancy gains a moderate in come by coloring photographs. Being vis-ited by a reporter of the Washington Post, Mrs. Christiancy made the following state-"My going to Peru was against my will ory S. Foster secretary, it was resolved that a national mass-meeting of Republicans opposed to the third-term candidate for the Presidency be called to meet in St. Louis some time in May. A formal call for the meeting will be issued Friday meraing. der, combs, brushes, books and papers have been dushed about the floor by unseen bands; that she bad at first administered a severe whipping to her little girl, thinking that she was responsible for these irregularities. The colored servant furthermore alieged that when engaged sweeping the floor the dust A special to the Times from Jefferson City days, commenced to abuse me violently, until his drunken anger getting the best of him, he struck me. I went down to the door to rush of the Republican State committee, six mem bers of that committee, with two proxies from the house, when George, his sixteen-year old son, followed me out and said that met here to-night. Mr. Saields presente an address to the Republicans of Missour e would go with me, as he was tired of seewhich he was authorized to have po ing me so treated. At that juncture, a Mr. In it he severely attacks C. J. Wiley, chair Hayt, an American resident in Lams, came man of the committee, and his partisans, and to the bouse on a visit and was a witness of the trouble. Mr. Christiancy then begged me to stay, saying that because the diagram of the committee, and his particular, the characterized the removal of himself as characterized the removal of himself as characterized the removal of himself as the characterized the removal of himse the trouble. Mr. Christiancy then begged me to stay, saying that he had not intended to strike me. But I refused to remain, and as I was tee with prexice, and beat him. upon good Republicans to elect leaving he called George to come to him. the Sedalia convention, and defeat Wiley and his schemes." The special further states George walked toward my husband, who then pointed to Mr. Hayt and me, saying to that the members of the committee me: 'Now you can go.' Instantly Mr. Hayt were generally against Grant, but will sur port the nominee of the National convention BALTIMORE, March 24.—This afternoon comprehended the insinuation, and answered:

James Gaylor, gene al superintendent of the 'Mrs. Christiancy does not leave this bouse city delivery of the Naw York postoffice. without your son accompanying her.' With with the aid of a detective, arrested Eagene Fairfax Williamson in this city on the charge her,' and came to me. 'If you go out of this A well-known lady of Brooktine, whose father was a clergyman of that town, re members one day to have seen a dog barking of having been the originator of the late annoyance to Rev. Dr. Morgan Dix and others of New York, by writing anonymous letters George and I went to a hotel. The next day at some cows in a pasture near her home. In another part of the pasture were horses grazing, too. All the animals in the pasture belonged there, excepting the dog. The to send for medical assistance. Dr. Knox called to see me, and I informed him of the strange noises in the room. He strange noises in the room that he was the author of the letters and postal cards. When I repeated william-strange noises in the room. He strange noises in the room. He strange noises in the strange noises in the room. He strange noises in the room that he was the author of the letters and postal cards. When I repeated william-strange noises in the room. He strange noises in th ened that I became very ill, and was obliged to send for medical assistance. Dr. Knoz called to see me, and I informed him son confessed that he was the author of the please come home. At first I refused, for leave the second home is a son confessed that he was the author of the please come home. At first I refused, for leave the second home is a son confessed that he was the author of the please come home. eft their own ground and went together to ward the dog, and when near enough one them kicked at him. Soon the dog saw his dasger and ran out of the lot, when the been feeding. and bleared and blood-shot, and his legs tottered under him, and his baked lips were cracked and smeared with blood. DeCosmos had spoken twenty-six hours, and saved the settlers their lands.

In week, when he wrote and mailed the offensive letters and cards. On both occasions this to. I accounted for it on the theory that, owing to the repeated frights I had been subject to, I must have ruptured a blood vessel. Well, Mr. and Mrs. Angus, Mr. Maher, a week, when he wrote and mailed the offensive letters and cards. On both occasions when I was lying on the bed, suffering the stopped at the Windsor hotel, and registered his proper name and residence (Pittstered his proper name and residence (Pitts NASHVILLE, March 24.—Only a small por-tion of the track of the Nashville race-course bet to, I must have ruptured a blood vessel.

Well, Mr. and Mrs. Angus, Mr. Maher, a Mr. Mallon, who is the proprietor of a liquor store and a friend of my husband, not to mention the members of my own family, became interested in solving the mystery which occasioned us sill so much fright. Mr. Angus thought it was all a joke. He and half a dozen other people were in here talking over the case last Monday. Mr. Angus used very strong language in denouncing what he was one at me until I was nearly wild. His sensation that a petition for his recall as minhe found on his visit to New York the injury
he had done on his first visit, he felt badly
a scandal, had it suppressed. Everything went quietly for some time, during which we heard that this Mr. Hsyt, who had gone furthe case last Monday. Mr. Angus used very strong language in denouncing what he was one at me until I was nearly wild. His driving me from toe house had raised such a sewre at me until I was nearly wild. His driving me from toe house had raised such a sewre at me until I was nearly wild. His driving me from toe house had raised such a sewre the spread against that a petition for his recall as minhe found on his visit to New York the injury
he had done on his first visit, he felt badly
a scandal, had it suppressed. Everything went quietly for some time, during which we heard that this Mr. Hsyt, who had gone furthe south, had been killed in the war. This was noticeably good news to Mr. Christiancy, who would have been glad to ha lifted and dashed to the other side of the room. Maggie," said Mrs. DeBar, adressing the colored girl, "please hand the cup to his willingness to go without a formal requisition. Williamson is a size of the charter election—each to one of his letters. The accused was taken stantly Mr. Christiancy's manner toward him eight Democrats and seven Republicans. It was changed; he was all kindness, for he did is expected that they will be indered by the Democratic and Republican county comsition. Williamson is a single man, about forty years of age, and says he is a native of Baltimore. He arrived here Friday night last, and went to a private residence where he was acquainted and found when arrested.

In the spreading of the facts remittees.

in another room reading a paper, heard my first scream and horned to my assistance, that day for the States, and I left the follow-ing week."

at in dancing is gracefulness. If that is so, the prevalent idea that the object was to get a chance to hug a girl without depriving her causes, of your coming home?" "Have you entered suit for divorce yet?" "I have already consulted one of the best lawyers here, and intend to bring a suit for content with using words, struck me.

divorce as soon as possible. There is a legal objection, however, which, perhaps, may be surmounted. I forfeited my residence here when I married Mr. Christiancy, and went to live in Michigan. When I returned with him and was subjected to continued ill-treatment, condoned it by living with him. The acts of ernelty for which I left him happened in Peru, and I have not since lived long enough reparations are being made for the grand in the District to entitle me to a legal residence in order to bring suit.

"Is Mr. Christiancy seeking a divorce?" "I do not know for certain, but I should not be surprised if he is. He threatened when I left him that he would crosh methose were his very words-unless I stayed would ruin my reputation for-He said that he had power and position, and I was weak and could not fight him. I can understand why these charges have been made against me. I threatened $4 90. of me, and would expose his cruelty, besides telling what I knew of his selling his seat in the senate to Chandler for a mission. Fear ing that I would carry out these threats, he is trying to create public sympathy in his be half and against me by malicious accusations. He told me that he would bring a suit against me for divorce. I asked him on what grounds, for I could not see where I had been guilty of anything which could form a basis for an action of this kind. 'I will bribe witnesses,' he said, 'to appear against you, if it is necessary."
"You say, Mrs. Christiancy, that you can tell something about the manner in which Mr. Christiancy procured his appointment as minister to Peru?"

"Yes, and I think it ought to be published.
One day Mr. Chandler came to our house in Defroit to see Mr. Caristiancy. I was somewhat surgresed at this, as the two had been at loggerheads for some time. They had a long interview in the parlor, the nature of which I knew nothing of until Vic Christiancy, the senator's son, who overheard it told it to me. Chandler said that he had been to Washington and seen Hayes, and one of the three missions could be tendered Christiancy, either Japan, Central America or Peru. The programme was that Christiancy was to have it published that he was In the shape of increasing demands for Hostetter o unwell to enter into a canvass and Stomach Bitters, are constantly reaching its pro-After a long talk, during which the details of the affair were arranged, Christiancy said; 'Well, we will consider this a settlement.' to these remote districts require. It protects them prictors. The mining and agricultural population from malaria, it fortifies them against the injurious saying, 'Yes, we will consider this a settle effects which frequently proceed from a mode of life fraught with hardships, and it has an unimposchament, and I will fix that matter with Henry, meaning, as I learned afterward, that he ble record for thoroughness. Travelers to foreign countries, mariners, and those generally who live ar would pay a sum of money to Christiancy's son Henry, who was in the customhouse at ing properties have not been exaggerated by the many who have borne favorable winess in its be half. A rock is not firmer on its base than this medicine in the confidence of our people. dine at home, but dined with Mr. Chandler, at the Lansing bouse. When he was away Vic told me what he heard, and that was the first intimation I had of the matter. Mr. Christiancy returned and asked me if would not like to go either to Japan, Centra business, but that is enough to show you should sell his seat in the senate to Chandler

At this point a visitor was announced and the reporter took his leave. In this connection it may be stated that six weeks ago Sen-how it was deliberately planned that h and receive as pay a mission.

There are counterfelts and imitations, which bea ne name, and trade upon the reputation achieved by genuine diamonds. Bear in mind that every pair of genuine "Diamond Spectacles" bear the trade-mark of a small diamond. The "Diamond" glasses save money. He thought he would take the Peru mission, as he would not have to live will always be found the best in the market. CELin style there. It did not pay as much taille, for instance, wearing the dress uniform of an Eeglish guardsman; Jacquet, a veritable Italian madieval costume, and Basawaiting the action of the senate on his nom-A CABD. To all who are suffering from the errors and indiminister to a South American country that it cretions of routh, nervous weakness, early decay, loss was impossible to live there in any respectaof manhood, etc., I will send a recipe that will cur bility whatever and save money. I tele-graphed Mr. Christiancy to that effect, for I you, FREE OF CHARGE. This great remedy was discovered by a missionary in South America. Sens had opposed his going all along, but he wrote a self-addressed envelope to Rev. Joseph T. Isman Station D. Non Vorb Offer

Chancery Sale of Real Estate. No. 681, R. (2)—Chancery Court of Shelby county—Charles H. Green, adm'r, etc., vs. Charles R. Lake et al.; and No. 602, R. (2)—A. J. Hayes et al. vs. Charles H. Green et al.

BY VIRTUE of an interlocutory decree for sale, entered in the above consolicated causes on the 12th March, 1880, M. B. 28, page 529, I will sell, at public auction, to the highest bidder, in front of the Cle k and Master's office. Courthouse Building, Main street, in the Taxing-district of Shelby county, late city of Memphis, Tennessee, on ator Caristiancy filed an application for leave | sell Saturday, April 3, 1880, was constantly plunged deeper and deeper in debt. By the time the work was comple-45 Years Before the Public ted Egypt owed about one hundred and twenty five million dollars, including its sub-THE CENUINE scriptions for the work, which was more than it really cost, and had security in bonds to offset only a part of its liabilities. There Dr. C. McLANE'S LIVER PILLS isn't any reason to suppose that M. DeLesseps's figures in relation to his Panama canal scheme are even as near a basis of fact as was the Suez estimate, for the proposed work at Panama is one that defies computation of

POLITICAL POINTS.

KANSAN.

ATCHISON, March 24 -The Champion ha advices from fifty-five counties in this State showing the selection of one hundred and forty eight Blaine and ninety-four Grant delegates to the State convention. Blaine will have about sixty majority in the convention.

NEW YORK.

GREENBACK STATE CONVENTION.

ALBANY, March 24 .- The National Green

ack-Labor party held their Slate convention to-day, about one hundred persons being present. J. L. Wright was temporary chair man. At roll-call Mrs. Dr. Stell responder man. At roll-call Mrs. Dr. Stell responded for the seventh assembly district of New York city. Her name was received with applause and hisses. A committee on credentials was appointed and a recess taken.

MISSOUBL.

ANTI GRANT REPUBLICANS. St. Louis, March 24 -At a meeting las

John B Henderson was chairman, and Em-

MORE OF IT.

Protection by Horses.

Nashville's spring Meeting.

"In pursuance to the call of George night of the committee of which Ex-Sens

BLAINE AHEAD THUS FAR.

are not recommended as a remedy "for all the ills that flesh is heir to," but in affections of the Liver, and in all Bilious Complaints, Dyapepsia, and Sick Headache, or diseases of that character, they stand without a rival. ACUE AND FEVER.

No better cathartic can be used prepara-tory to, or after taking quinine.

As a simple purgative they are unequaled. BEWARE OF IMITATIONS. The genuine are never sugar-coated. Each box has a red-wax seal on the lid with the impression, McLANE'S LIVER PILL.

Zach wrapper bears the signatures of
C. McLANE and FLEMING BROS. Insist upon having the genuine Dr. C. McLANE'S LIVER PILLS, prepared by FLEMING BROS., Pittsburgh, Pa.,

the market being full of imitations of the name McLane, spelled differently but INVALIDS AND OTHERS SEEKING HEALTH.

STRENGTH AND ENERGY VITHOUT THE USE OF DRUGS, ARE RE QUESTED TO SEND FOR THE ELECTRIC REVIEW, AN ILLUSTRATED JOUR-NAL, WHICH IS PUBLISHED FOR FIREE DISTRIBUTION.

IT TREATS upon HEALTH, HYGUENE, and Physical Call Culture, and is a complete encyclopedia of information for invalids and those who sudar from Nervous. Exhausting and Painful Diseases. Every subject that bears upon bealth and buman inspriness, resirves attention in its pages; and the many questions asked by suffering invalids, who have dispaired of a cure, are answered, and valuable in formation is volunteered to all who are in need of medical advice. The embject of Execute Income Medicine, and the hundred and one questions of vital importance to suffering humanity, are duly considered and or valuable. FOR FREE DISTRIBUTION.

YOUNG MEN And others who suffer from Nervous and Physical bility, Loss of Manly Vigor, Fremature Exhaus-and the many glossup consequences of early indi-tion, etc., are especially benefited by consulting contents.

The ELECTRIC REVIEW exposes the unmitigated franch practiced by quacks and medical impostors who profess to "practice medicine," and points out the only asfe, simple, and effective road to Health, Vigor and hedily-Energy.

Send your address on poetal card for a copy, and information worth thousands will be sent you.

Address, the publishers,

PULVERMACHER GALVANIC CO., COR. EIGHTH & VINE STREETS, CINCINNATI. O. Coughs, Bronchitis, Consumption What a Well-known Drugglet Bays about Allen's Lung Belsam. MOTHERS, READ!

GENTLEMEN-The demand for Atlen's Lung Balsom is increasing constantly. The ladies ink there is no medicine equal to it for Croup and Vhooping Cough. C. S. MARTIN, Lunggist. Sold by all Medicine Dealers. es returned to the spot where they had

THE FOLLOWING PRIZES

Whole Tickets, 82. | Haif Tickets, 81 27 Tickets, 850. 55 Tickets, 8100. All applications for club rates should be made to was reached by the recent overflow HNDFRTAKERS 320 Main, Memphis.

= 18th POPULAR MONTHLY DRAWING OF THE Commonwealth Distribution Co

Authorized by the Commonwealth of Kentucky, and Fairest in the World. He was traced from the Winds r hotel by the detectives.

his abuse of me, and to escape him I ran into grove, of Charlotte, will be married to the sitting-room. He followed me, and, not content with using words, struck me. I brother-in-law, H. A. Lee, in this city. It is At Macauley's Theater, in the city of Louisville, o WEDNESDAY, MARCH 31, 1880. screamed, and then he choked me until I to be a very quiet affair, as only the relatives could make no sound. Mr. Hayt, who was of the respective families are to be present. hurling Mr. Christiancy back and almost A young lady writes to the Whitehall Re-throwing him to the floor. Mr. Hayt left view that the end above all things to be aimed > family of the use of the front parlor once a week is all wrong. Fire and Loss of Life. MILWAUKEE. March 24 .- A special to the Sentinel from Euclare says that the residence causing a loss of fitteen hundred dollars Charles Liabenthal, aged sixty-four years was buried in the ruins, and perished A Conditional Bequest. TROY, N. Y., March 24.—By the will of the late General W. B. Tibbets, of this city, All applications for club rates should be made to the home office.

Full list of drawing published in Louisville Courser-Journal and New York Herald, and mailed to all ticket-holders. Send all orders by money or bankdraft, in letter, or by express. Orders of $5 and upward, by express, can be sent at our expense. Address R. BOARDMAN, Courser-Journal Building, Louisville, Kentucky, or at No. 163 Broadway, New York, or to No. it West Court street, Mempbis, Tann one hundred thousand dollars are bequeather with which to build a soldiers' nome in Troy conditioned upon fifty thousand dollars additional being secured within five years.

Buffalo Cattle Receipts. BUFFALO, March 24.-Cattle receipts 1100. The market is dult and a shade low er; common to fair cattle and extra steers are in good export demand at $5 25 and good to choice steers, $4 40 and Collision in New York Harber.

NEW YORK, March 24 -The steam Annex, plying between Brooklyn and Jerse the Battery to-day and was badly damaged. One passenger fell into the river and was Secured the Advance Desired.

NEW YORK, March 24 .- Thurman's striking cabinet-makers have resumed work a the increase of wages desired. piano manufacturing firm opened its doors to HOPKINS'S GRAND DISPLAY Fire at Manitowec. MILWAUKEE, March 24 .- A special to the Millinery Goods! Sentinel says that a fire at Manitowoo de-stroyed the residence of Mrs. Wooden and French Pattern Bonnets, Hats, Turbans, two adjoining buildings. Loss, three thou Flowers, Feathers, Ribbons, Silks, Jet Goods, Beads of all Shades and Colors. Taking in Texas.

P. E. HOPKINS & CO., 269 MAIN ST. NEW ORLEANS, March 24 -A dispatch FANCY DYEING. om General Grant says he will visit San Antonio, and will not reach New Orlean until March 31st. DRY CLEANING. Marks of Approbation.

> WM. R. TEASDALF, 265 Walnut St., Cincinnati, Q AVERY & BERLIN Real Estate

E.HOPKINS !

MEMPHIS.

-- AND ---RENTAL AGENTS. No. 39 Madison St.

will always be found the best in the market. CKLLULDID ETE-GLASSES, representing the choicest solected Tortoise-shell and Amber. The lightest handsomest and strongest known. For sale in Memphis by C. L. BYRD & CO., 275 Main street.

Memphis by C. L. BYRD & CO., 275 Main street.

The "Agitator Fuzzle,"

OR Game of 15 & 16 is creating a perfect furore.

Bold by merchants on 10e Counters, or sample sent by us for 10 cents and 8c stamp, merch-sts. Wake Up! mtort a 5 or 10e Counter! We are the only Exclusive Jobbers of "5 and 10c Goods" in the World, Catalogue an particulars mailed free on application. BU: LER BROS., 200 and 902 Randolph St., Chicago. Also New York and Boston.

W. A. FAIRES & CO (Successors to J. B. & W. A. Faires), Dealers in HORSES and MULKS,

No. 55 Union street. WE keep constantly on hand a choice selection of Horses and Mules. Everything guaranteed as represented. Orders solicited.

J.S.STANTON & CO.

WHOLESALE GROCERS, COTTON FACTORS And Commission Merchants, 284 FRONT STREET, MEMPHIS

SPECIAL ATTENTION given to the Sale of all Memphis Floral Co

6 Immense Greenhouses-14 Miles from City. Store-857 Main street, Memphis, Tenn. BEAUTIFUL ILLUSTRATED CATALOGUES OF Piants, Roseo, Buits, Flower Seeds, etc., mailed